

THE WOOLMORE EXHIBITION

Thursday 4th and Friday 5th December 2014
2.00-5.00pm

In January 2015 we move into a brand new school building. Parents, governors, former pupils and friends of Woolmore are invited to come and see the 'old' Woolmore School for the last time.

What will be happening?

- Tours of the school – see the pupils writing their memories of Woolmore and look at lots of exciting learning displays about our whole school topic: Woolmore and The East End
- See our songwriter and our artist in residence working with the pupils
- Look at photos and memory books from across the Woolmore years
- Meet and talk to some of the staff and governors who have been here for many years (and the new ones too!)
- Share some of your memories with us – write them down and be part of the Woolmore Memory Archive
- Join our Woolmore tea party – everyone welcome!

Timings for both days:

- Talk with Headteacher and staff: 2.15
 - Tours of the school from 2.30 onwards
 - Tea party and memory sharing for visitors: 4 – 5.00
- If you know past pupils who would like to come and visit please pass on this invitation – thank you
- Also: Headteacher's Q&A meeting on Thursday 4 Dec@9.00am

We will be moving into our new school in January 2015. Come and celebrate our Victorian building and share some memories.

Please join us and share in this historic occasion
