

Year 1: Let's Learn About... Dinosaur Planet

Spring 1

Dinosaur A dinosaur is a prehistoric reptile that lived 66 million years ago.  Palaeontologist A scientist who studies fossils.  Mary Anning Born -1799, died -1847, was a famous English fossil hunter and collector. 	carnivore an animal that eats other animals		excavate to uncover objects buried in the ground
	herbivore an animal that eats plants		extinct describes plants or animals that don't exist anymore
	omnivore an animal that eats other animals and plants		predator an animal that hunts and eats other animals
	fossils the marks of a plant or animal protected in rock		prey an animal that predators hunt down and eat

Can you learn the names of these dinosaurs?

Map of the United Kingdom

Can you find London on the U.K. map?

Year 1: Let's Learn About... Dinosaur Planet

Spring 1

Lyme Regis, on the south coast of England – is where Mary Anning was born and grew up. This is an area with lots of fossils.