With best wishes,

New School News

Hoorah!

The bulldozers have arrived in the big playground which means that, finally, a start has been made on the new school. It was sad to see our keep-fit trail and the garden being demolished, but it is all in a good cause!

Starting the school day

Although the start of the school day is still 9.00am, children in Reception, Y1 and Y2S

Set your alarm to be here on time!

Attendance Issues

Last year we had very poor attendance at Woolmore. This year we are determined to have AMAZING ATTENDANCE! Our target is 96% across the whole year. This means that as soon as more than 7 children are absent we are below our target. So, we want EVERY CHILD to come to school EVERY DAY so that they don't miss out on a single bit of learning.

Fines for extended leave

In line with many schools in Tower Hamlets, Woolmore Governors have adopted the Government Penalty Notice Scheme. Please look out for a letter informing you about this next week. Fines can also be given for persistent lateness.

Welcome

Welcome to Miss Kilgariff, our new Deputy Headteacher. Already Miss Kilgariff has been getting to know the children and the staff. She will gradually be getting to know the parents so please feel free to introduce yourselves.

Welcome to Woolmore Miss Kilgariff!
